

Beylikduzu

ISTANBUL

▶ ICB 121

The image shows a modern residential complex. In the background, there are three tall apartment buildings with a mix of brown and white facades and many balconies. In the foreground, there is a large swimming pool with a wooden deck. To the left of the pool is a building with large glass windows, which appears to be a gym or a community center. The area is landscaped with green trees and bushes. A large white umbrella is on the right side of the pool. The sky is blue with some birds flying.
